

This May 24, 2001, update is from EPA's Chemical Emergency Preparedness and Prevention Office.
Direct links to each document are provided.
Volume 1, Number 12 includes:

1. Risk Management Program Audit/Inspection Curriculum
2. LEPCs and Deliberate Releases: Addressing Terrorist Activities in the Local Emergency Plan Factsheet
3. Two New Chemical Safety Networks now available

1. This curriculum provides a comprehensive training program for USEPA auditors/inspectors who are conducting audits, inspections, and field investigations under the Accidental Release provisions of the Clean Air Act, Section 112(r). Additionally, it provides guidance for use by State and local implementing agencies. This document is available at: <http://www.epa.gov/ceppo/whatnew.html>

2. In recent years, the threat of incidents involving chemical and biological materials has increased. Local emergency planning committees (LEPCs) need to consider the possibility of terrorist events as they review existing plans and consider how to incorporate counter- terrorism (CT) measures into their plans. This factsheet discusses how LEPCs can incorporate CT issues when they review and update their local plans. This factsheet can be downloaded at:
<http://www.epa.gov/ceppo/whatnew.html>

3. The Lubrizol Corporation: New Chemicals Issues Assessment

How to Improve Safe Handling of Chemical Products:
Sartomer Company, Exton, Pennsylvania

The Chemical Safety Networks are designed to share successful practices in implementation, risk communication, and data use.
Both documents can be downloaded at:
<http://www.epa.gov/ceppo/whatnew.html>

Previous Chemical Safety Networks can be downloaded at:
